BUILDING FLORIDA

communicating and promoting Florida's professional construction communities

ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITIES

Building Florida magazine serves as a forum to communicate and promote Florida's professional construction communities to become the largest construction market in the nation.

Our readership is involved in producing trillions of dollars of construction annually.

Effectively reach construction professionals from the four major construction associations in Florida – including AGC, ABC, FHBA and BOAF. Reach nearly 40 subchapters with one ad, for one price.

Strengthen relations with the decision makers who purchase your products and services and symbolize your support for the industry's magazine.

AUDIENCE

We send our magazine to more than 20,000 professionals representing all levels of management and specialties throughout Florida. Our readers are those managers and owners who either purchase or provide construction services. This includes but is not limited to, developers, facility planners and owners, architects, engineers, general contractors, specialty contractors and project managers.

EDITORIAL FOCUS

Building Florida will profile companies and individuals that have performed significant roles in the construction community. Every edition will cover topics, trends, and events pertaining to the industry. For a complete editorial calendar, please ask your representative.
